

Sharon exceeded our brief and provided exceptionally high quality outputs on our project. She exposed the most important challenges and opportunities which helped us work through a complex decision making process. On a personal level I love working with Sharon, she is technically skilled, very strategic, and brings great humour and rapport to her work which means you can trust her with any stakeholders, no matter how important. I'd recommend Sharon without hesitation.

Helen McEachern – Fundraising Director
Action Aid

<https://www.actionaid.org.uk>